

DING DONG MERRILY ON THAMES!

The New Egham Singers entertain at the runnymede-on-thames for a good cause on Tuesday 13th and Tuesday 20th December

(7 December 2011)- There is nothing quite like listening to Christmas carols to set the festive mood in December, especially when the carols are accompanied by complimentary mulled wine, melt-in-the-mouth mince pies and beautiful decorations.

For the perfect start to the Christmas season, join the New Egham Singers for the runnymede-on-thames' carol evenings. To be held in the lounge each Tuesday throughout December (13th & 20th), between 6.45pm and 8.15pm, 18 of the 100 strong New Egham Singers will sing a concert of popular carols.

Established in early 2009, the choir is formed of singers of all ages and abilities, led by Musical Director Guy Bence and accompanied by Ingrid Keedy.

The carol evenings are being held in aid of three local charities: Midas Plus, The Penrose Club and The Shooting Star CHASE Children's Hospice - any donations at each evening will be gratefully received.
