Half Term Happiness Family Fun this October

September 2011: From Legoland adventures in Windsor to giant chess and jenga at The Grove; treasure hunts in Mauritius to London family breaks at The Wyndham Grand, this October is a kids' paradise. And the great range of added value offers available in the UK and beyond mean quality time with the family needn't break the bank this half term.

BEST FOR THRILL SEEKERS

Theme Park Breaks at the runnymede-on-thames, Surrey

The runnymede-on-thames is a friendly, family-owned hotel and spa set on the banks of the River Thames near Windsor. The hotel is just minutes from two of the UK's best theme parks, Legoland Windsor and Chessington World of Adventures, so this half term why not try out Legoland's new submarine Atlantis or Chessington's Sea Life centre with one of the runnymede-on-thames' theme park packages?

Prices for a family of three with tickets and accommodation start from £270 including:

- A Friday, Saturday or Sunday night stay
- Two day tickets to LEGOLAND® Windsor or Chessington World of Adventures
- Full English breakfast in the riverside restaurant leftbank
- Full use of the award-winning spa with indoor pool, children's pool, tennis courts, gym, sauna and steam rooms

More for families at runnymede-on-thames:

- Parents can relax in the spa while the children play in the children's area before all enjoying a 'ducklings dinner' where children can cook pizzas with the chef
- Take a riverside walk – the hotel will give you bags of bird seed to feed the ducks
- Cruise up the Thames in the hotel's private riverboat
