

Treat your loved one to a stylish Valentine's city break at Hotel Miramar, Barcelona

January 2012 - Housed in a former Art Deco palace, Hotel Miramar is the hotel for romance in Barcelona. High on Montjuic Mountain and commanding spectacular panoramas over Barcelona and the Mediterranean Sea, Hotel Miramar is still only ten minutes from the heart of the city. The swish spa with indoor pool is perfect for romantic relaxation, while the elegant outdoor pool is made for lazy days in the sunshine. Many of the sleek rooms and suites have terraces, and extensive private gardens await for quiet hand-in-hand sunset strolls.

Guests booking to stay this February can choose from a range of exclusive extras to treat a loved one and make for a memorable stay. The 'Romantic Getaway' offer entitles couples to a romantic bath in the room's stylish tub, complete with strawberries and chocolates. For those charmed by spa treatments, the 'Wellness Getaway' will treat couples to a relaxing massage each, while gastronomes can enjoy the 'Gourmet Getaway', letting couples choose between an indulgent lunch for two, or evening dinner. All three packages – priced between €217.50 and €227.50 per couple – also include an overnight stay, breakfast and complimentary access to the spa, perfect for total relaxation.

Guests who book for stays 10th-15th February will also receive a 10% off voucher to be used in the restaurant when ordering a minimum of one starter and one main course per person from the a la carte menu.

Notes to Editors:

Hotel Miramar is one of Barcelona's newest and most exciting luxury hotels. Superbly located in the heart of Barcelona, yet atop Montjuic Mountain, it enjoys spectacular gardens and views. With 75 spacious guest bedrooms and suites, the former Art Deco palace of 1929 has been carefully renovated by Oscar Tusquets Blanca with original features preserved, seamlessly blending old and new. The hotel sits within extensive private gardens designed by French landscape architect Jean C. Forestier. With a sleek outdoor swimming pool and poolside bar, it also features the latest technology, a luxurious contemporary spa (with indoor pool), a state-of-the-art fitness centre, and the gourmet Forestier Restaurant. Within weeks of opening, Hotel Miramar was featured in the prestigious Conde Nast Traveller 2007 'Hot List'
